A Personal Message from Andy Wheeler,
TTC Group Training Director

A record breaking year

The end of the year is nearly upon us, where we pause from business and spend quality time over the festive period with the people most important to us, our family and friends. It is at this time; I like to reflect on all the highs and lows throughout the year and look forward to building on the successes we have collectively achieved through 2022.

Firstly, I must extend a massive congratulations to the wider TTC team for recruiting an amazing group of trainers to meet the demand coming through. Across both our trading divisions of Police and Corporate, including our sister company Business Driver, the demand for driver training services has never been higher, and our recruitment drive has been successful in meeting this challenge. This has involved a vast range of people at all levels, too many people to mention here, but I and you know who you are, and I really do appreciate everything you have achieved. Thank You.

By the end of the year, we will have trained well over half a million people across the TTC Group and none of this would have been possible without all of you. The feedback we continue to receive is also very impressive and is a testament to the great work you put in time after time, so a big thank you to you all. As the largest online provider, we also need to be constantly adaptive and listen to our workforce.

Therefore, during 2022, we formed a broader Training Division including my current position as Group Training Director, covering all training activities. Linked to this message is the launch of our NEW TTC Trainer Academy; a multi-disciplinary approach to trainer development across the TTC Group.

Our ambition is to create further opportunities for trainers, like you, to work across all our business divisions and deliver a variety of different training programmes. I am very excited, not only for what we have achieved this year, but for the coming year ahead, and so, on behalf of the team and everyone at TTC group, may I wish you and your families a Merry and peaceful Christmas and Happy New Year, however you celebrate this festive season. I am really looking forward to meeting as many of you as possible during 2023 and building on the success and difference you make in people's lives.
